SILL is a non-partisan voluntary organization committed to providing educational, informational, and engagement opportunities to Sarasota's discerning citizens.

YOU'RE INVITED

We encourage you to attend one of our events. We are convinced that once you experience the program, you will want to come back for more.

The knowledge our performers and speakers impart, the energy in the audience, and the social interactions are the essential parts of the SILL experience.

We look forward to welcoming you to a SILL event soon.

From Our Audience

"You can read something in the newspaper and know something is missing. At SILL you can listen to the experts, ask questions, and get the whole story."

"Hearing the lectures and talking about them with friends make an incredible impression and I love it."

"Every week a new artist is featured and we learn about their instruments, whether it is a musical instrument, voice, or something really unusual"

GLOBAL ISSUES

Our programs cover a range of countries and key issues shaping the future and changing the way we live.

Recent speakers include former Deputy Secretaries of State, Congressmen, Generals, CEO's of major corporations, star foreign correspondents, Ambassadors and leading academics.

Each session provides an opportunity to ask questions

VIDEO ON DEMAND

Music Mondays (New for 2025) Global Issues Series II

Recorded Thursdays in Sarasota.

Individuals may purchase access to the videos as a subscription or single event.

Available for 4 weeks after they are posted.

MUSIC MONDAYS

Music Mondays offers a glimpse into the lives of international, national and local musical performers through scintillating conversation and performance.

Artists share behind the scenes stories and anecdotes alongside their musical gifts with the audience.

Mainstream musicians are featured along with some unusual instruments such as the shakuchi (Japanese flute), and unique percussion instruments.

Each session provides an opportunity to ask questions.
